ENTERED according to act of Congress, in the year 1845, by JOHN MURPHY, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Maryland.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE undersigned, having been appointed by the late Mayor to the duty of numbering the houses in this city, have, at the suggestion of the leading business men, undertaken to make out a new and complete Directory.

Having now completed the work preparatory to publication, they beg leave to inform their friends and the public that they have made arrangements with Mr. JOHN MURPHY, No. 178 Baltimore street, for printing and publishing the same, and that it will be issued in a very neat and convenient style, with all possible despatch. In announcing this work we do not deem it out of place to point out to the public a few of the advantages that we have enjoyed in this undertaking. Being compelled by the business in which we were employed to visit every house, we have had an opportunity of ascertaining CORRECTLY the Names, Places of Business, and Dwellings of all the householders in the city. We have also taken especial pains to secure a List of all the Public Buildings, Names of the Streets, Lanes, Alleys, and Courts within the city limits, with much other useful information, suitable for a work of this description, and have no hesitation in promising to the public the most correct and useful work of the kind that has ever been offered to the citizens of Baltimore. In conformity with the above arrangement, a Book is kept at Mr. Murphy's Store, where changes in Firms, Removals, and all other changes that may have taken place since we have called at the different places, can be registered. Immediate attention on the part of those interested, to this matter, will confer a great favor on the publishers, and insure that accuracy which is so essential to the public. For the convenience of Merchants, Mechanics, Business and Professional Men generally, we have concluded to add at the end of the work a few pages of advertisements. To this matter we have determined to pay particular attention in order to meet the wishes, and promote the general interest of the business community, by inserting their advertisements in a conspicuous manner at a very low price.

WM. H. STEWART,
A. CARRERE,
J. H. VALIANT.

PREFACE.

THE subscriber, in presenting to the public a new Directory of the City of Baltimore, deems it proper to offer a few prefatory remarks relative to the origin, execution, and aim of the work.

By a reference to the preceding card it will be seen that the project of issuing the present publication did not originate with the subscriber, but with the gentlemen, who, having been appointed to number the houses in the city, availed themselves of the opportunity thus afforded, to collect the materials for a Directory. Their opinion is, that they have succeeded in compiling the most useful and correct work of the kind ever offered to the citizens of Baltimore; but the subscriber would be unjust to them, were he to claim any credit beyond that which may be due to its general arrangement, its neat and careful mechanical execution, and the addition of an historical sketch of the city and a Business Directory.

The Directory has been arranged in a compact but distinct manner, in order to bring as many names as possible at once under the eye. This arrangement may cause the list to appear shorter than in other works of the same kind; but in reality much more matter is contained within its pages than would, from a hasty inspection, be supposed.

The Business Directory is regarded as a valuable feature of the work; and great pains have been taken to give the avertisements a full display, that citizens and strangers may be able to distinguish at a glance the names, number, and variety of firms and occupations, and the facilities offered for trade. The gratuitous circulation of a large number of the Business Directory, through the South and West, will, it is believed, add to the usefulness of the publication, by making known in all directions the strong inducements offered to strangers by merchants, manufacturers, mechanics, &c., to form business relations with our prosperous city.

It is also hoped that the brief sketch of the progress of Baltimore, from its settlement to the present time, may prove an acceptable addition in the view of those interested in the prosperity of the city, and desirous of tracing its rapid improvement and anticipating its future increase in wealth and population.

Of the importance and utility of a work like the present, especially to a large and growing city, placed in advantageous competition with other prominent marts in different parts of the country, it can not be necessary to speak. Of the difficulties encountered in the attempt to render such a publication accurate and complete in all its departments, no one can conceive who has not, like the subscriber, become connected with such a labor. No exertion has been spared, on his part, to render the Directory, in all respects, worthy the approbation of the public; to whose patronage it is now respectfully commended, with the assurance that, should the enterprise be received with favor, it will be continued at a proper period, with every correction and improvement which time and circumstances may render necessary, and which the experience acquired in the preparation of this edition may suggest.

JOHN MURPHY.

BALTIMORE, April, 1845.

A SKETCH

OF THE

HISTORY OF BALTIMORE.

Baltimore, the principal city of Maryland, and of the United States south of the Delaware, and the third in population in the Union, is situated upon a branch of the Patapsco River, about 14 miles from its mouth, and 200 miles, by the Chesapeake Bay, from the sea. This branch is about a mile and three-quarters long, and varies from one-eighth to three-quarters of a mile in width; having its greatest breadth opposite to the tract called Canton. It affords an easy access to the city, and a capacious, safe, and well protected harbor, of a depth and extent sufficient to float ships of the largest class, and to afford ample accommodations for at least two thousand vessels.

The harbor consists of an inner Basin, at the wharves of which vessels drawing ten or twelve feet of water may lie; and an outer bay, lying between Fell's Point and Canton on the north and east, and Whetstone Point on the south, with from sixteen to twenty feet of water. Ships of heavy burden do not go higher up than the Point. From the facilities offered by the depth of the water, the Point is also the seat of the principal ship-yards; from which have been launched some of the finest and fleetest vessels of the American marine, which are especially noted for beauty of proportion and excellence of construction. The name of "Baltimore Clipper" is synonymous, all over the world, with all that is beautiful in naval architecture and perfect in the requisites of a staunch and well appointed ship.

The city is built principally on the north side of the Patapsco, and extends around its western termination. Its location is picturesque, and its appearance, especially from the direction of Fort McHenry (situated on the point of a peninsula at the mouth of the harbor), is attractive and imposing. It stands upon uneven ground, the higher points of which afford many beautiful views of the river, the bay, and the adjacent country.

The boundaries of the city are extensive. The streets are broad, and generally cross each other at right angles, with the exception of those in the vicinity of Jones's Falls, a stream that traverses the city from north to south, dividing it into two portions. Indeed, Baltimore may be regarded as made up of three parts, originally distinct; but which have gradually spread out, so as to meet each other and form one whole; viz: Baltimore Town, which at first occupied a small tract on the west side of Jones's Falls; Old Town, which was early and separately settled, on the east side of the Falls; and the village of Fell's Point, which grew up to the south east of that stream, on the outer basin.

A primary object in commencing this sketch was, to pass in review the present condition, resources, and prospects of Baltimore; but in this connection it seems not inappropriate to illustrate, by a rapid review, the settlement of the villages, as noted above, and the principal incidents connected with their progress from the condition of waste lands and insignificant hamlets, to that of a united, populous, and prosperous city.

It appears that, in 1662, Mr. Charles Gorsuch, of the society of Friends, took up and patented fifty acres of land on Whetstone Point. The practice at that time was to take up waste lands in small quantities, although the price was extremely low. In 1663, Mr. Alexander Mountenay took up two hundred acres of land, comprising the glade or bottom lying on both sides of Harford Run, and called Mountenay's Neck. In 1668, Timber Neck, lying between the heads of the middle and north branches of the Patapsco, was patented for Mr. John Howard. In the same year, a tract of five hundred and fifty acres was granted to Thomas Cole, and called Cole's Harbor. This tract extended from Mountenay's land westwardly across the north side of the river, one mile; and northwardly from the river about half a mile, in the form of a rhomboid, divided into two nearly equal parts by the stream afterwards called Jones's Falls.

At later periods, different persons patented Copus's Harbor, Long Island Point, Kemp's Addition, and Parker's Haven, on the east;—Lunn's Lot and Chatsworth, on the west;—David's Fancy, on the south;—and Salisbury Plains, Darley Hall, and Gallow Barrow, on the north; which, with other tracts, were afterwards added to the town.

About 1682, the tract called Cole's Harbor was conveyed to Mr. David Jones, who gave his name to the stream which runs through the city, and who is believed to have been the first actual settler; having his residence on the north side of the stream, near the head of tide water. In 1711, Mr. Jonas Hanson, having purchased thirty-one acres of Cole's Harbor, with a mill-seat, erected a mill, the remains of which, within a short time, were yet standing near the corner of Holliday and Bath streets. In 1726, Mr. Edward Fell, a merchant from Lancaster, of the society of Friends, settled on the east side of the Falls. The improvements at this time, consisted of two dwellings, a mill, tobacco houses, orchards, &c. The land was about half cleared, and is represented, by a surveyor's return, as middling in quality.

The establishment of ports, towns, &c., was among the instructions first given to the governor of the province; and accordingly, about the year 1683, there seems to have been a general excitement in regard to laying out towns, and creating ports of trade, by act of Assembly. In 1706, Whetstone Point was made a town;—other towns, which had been previously laid out, were discontinued;—but so large a number of acts of settlement was passed, as to indicate that the private interests of landholders had more to do with their enactment than public necessity.

At this period, as the produce raised on the borders of the Patapsco was insufficient alone for the lading of ships, and as the population on any one river was too sparse to consume the whole of a cargo, the common station for vessels was off North Point; whence they could easily communicate with the rivers and even with the other side of the bay. The increase of population, and the consequent increase of produce and consumption, gradually brought the ships into the river, though not at once to the head of it. In 1723, there were five ships in the Patapsco up for freight to London; yet but one of them lay in the northern branch; and it is evident that there were then as many inducements for vessels to anchor in the south and middle branches, as in the north branch.

At this time the idea of laying out a new town was conceived. As the common place of anchorage for the merchant vessels, and the place to which the main road from the west was directed, the point between the middle and south branches of the Patapsco was regarded by the inhabitants as the most eligible situation; and application was made to Mr. John Moale, the owner, a merchant from Devonshire, for ground upon which to lay out a town. It is even said that a bill for the purpose was introduced into the Legislature, of which Mr. M. was a member; but he, preferring to work the iron ore, with which the spot abounded, refused the application of the people, defeated the measure in the Assembly, and thus made it necessary for the founders of the new town to seek another location.

The head of the north-west branch being then selected, a petition was prepared for the Assembly, and, agreeably to the prayer of the petitioners, an act was passed in 1729, entitled, "An Act for erecting a Town on the north side of the Patapsco, in Baltimore county, and for laying out into lots, sixty acres of land in and about the place where one John Flemming now lives." This Flemming resided on the north bank of Uhler's Run, near where James R. Williams & Son's dyeing establishment now stands, in south Charles street. By this act, commissioners were appointed, with proper powers; and were directed to purchase by agreement, or to obtain by the valuation of a jury, the above mentioned sixty acres, which they were to lay out in the most convenient manner into sixty lots, and dispose of to settlers on specified conditions. In compliment to the Proprietary, whose ancestor took his title of Baron from a sea port of the same name, in Ireland, the town thus laid out was to be called "BALTIMORE."

On the 1st of December, 1729, the commissioners purchased of Messrs. Carroll, the owners, the tract authorized by law; to be paid for at 40*s.* per acre in money, or in tobacco, at 1*d.* per pound. On the 12th of January, 1730, they, assisted by the county surveyor, laid off the town. Within, it was divided by Long, now Baltimore street, intersected at right angles by Calvert street, not then named, and Forrest, now Charles st. There were also nine lanes;—East, South, Second, Light, Hanover, Belvidere, St. Paul's, German, and Lovely Lanes;—the most of which have been widened into streets, without any change of name. From the small quantity of ground taken up and the location, it is evident the commissioners did not anticipate its present trade or population; and, strange as it may appear, although commercial considerations must have had some influence in the formation of the new town, its exterior boundaries no where reached the shore; and but one avenue, Calvert street, appeared to communicate with the water. It is also worthy of notice, that, while but one lot was taken on what is now called Baltimore street, all the lots towards the river were taken within the first three days after they were offered for sale.

In 1730, Mr. William Fell, a ship carpenter, and brother of Edward, who, it will be remembered, had settled on the east side of the Falls in 1726, bought the tract called Copus' Harbor, and some time after erected a mansion on Lancaster street. From him this portion of the city took the name, which it still retains, of "Fell's Point."

In 1732, a new town, of ten acres, was laid off into twenty lots, valued at one hundred and fifty pounds of tobacco each, on the east side of the Falls, on that part of Cole's Harbor settled by Mr. Edward Fell. It was called Jonestown; and consisted of three streets, afterwards called Front, Short and Jones streets;—on the last of which, on the south-west corner of Bridge st. stood a store, kept by Mr. Fell. This settlement, having been made before Baltimore was laid out, took, after a time, and has since retained, the name of "Old Town."

In 1745, Jonestown and Baltimore were united and called by the name of the latter. In 1747, an act of Assembly was passed, by which Gay, Frederick, and a part of Water and Second streets were laid off, with eighteen acres of ground. This addition contained all the solid ground between the eastern limit of the first town and the Falls. The act by which this addition was made, pointedly illustrates the jealousy of the Legislature of that day, in the provision inserted, that nothing in it should be construed to give "the inhabitants of said town a right to elect delegates to the Assembly, as representatives from the town." In 1750, High street, from Ploughman to French, with eighteen acres of ground, was added to the town. A tobacco inspection house was erected on the west side of Charles street, and a public wharf was commenced at the south end of Calvert street, which for a long time was called, the "County Wharf."

In 1751, an unsuccessful attempt was made to erect a Market House and Town Hall, by subscription. The opposing interests of the settlers on the opposite sides of the Falls, and disputes as to location, most probably defeated the plan. In 1752, there were in the town about twenty-five houses, four of which were of brick. One of these, built by Wm. Payne, and occupied by him as a tavern, is still standing, on the north-west corner of Calvert and Mercer streets. The amount of shipping owned in the town at this period, was one brig and one sloop; but there were probably several vessels owned in the neighborhood. In the same year, thirty-two acres of Cole's Harbor, lying on the south, west, and north of the first settlement, were added to the town.

After the defeat of Braddock, in 1755, parties of Indians passed within forts Cumberland and Frederick, and ravaged the country within ninety miles of the town. Great alarm prevailed, so that the inhabitants of the county fled to Baltimore for safety, and preparations were made to put the women and children on board of boats and vessels in the harbor. The effect of the war unquestionably was to promote the growth of the town; since many, who would have been disposed to take up lands in the interior, were deterred by the danger, and gave the advantage of their capital and enterprise to the already thriving mart.

In 1756, Mr. Andrew Steiger took the lot on the north-east corner of Gay and Baltimore streets. On the gable of the house at present standing there are fixed the figures "1741;" but this date is several years before the laying out of that part of the town, and fifteen years before it was deeded to Steiger. During the same year, many of the "neutral French," deprived of their property in Nova Scotia by the British, and driven destitute from their homes, took refuge in Baltimore, and were kindly received. By the exercise of great industry and frugality, they obtained the means of purchasing much of the ground on S. Charles street, where they at first erected rude cabins or huts. As they continued to prosper, these gave place to substantial buildings of wood or brick, erected mostly with their own hands. This part of the town was long after known by the name of "French Town."

In 1765, many of the water lots on the Point had been taken; and as it was favorably situated for building and fitting out vessels, it became a rival of the town. In fact, the first settlers were at a loss to determine in which part to buy; and, finally, such as could command the means took lots both in the town and on the Point. In the same year, thirty-five acres of the tract called Lunn's Lot, were added to the town, including the streets afterwards called Conway and Barre, in honor of the opponents of the stamp act, in the British parliament. The next year, a law was passed, appointing commissioners to have the marsh between Frederick street and the Falls, filled up and added to the town. Up to this time, the county courts had been held at Joppa, on the Gunpowder river; but such had been the increase of Baltimore, and so great was the inconvenience to which the inhabitants were subjected, in attending court there, that in 1768 a law was passed, authorizing the erection of a Court House and Prison on Calvert street, near Jones's Falls; which was carried into effect. The former, built of brick and two stories high, occupied the spot where the Battle Monument now stands, and continued till the new Court House was built in 1808; the latter, of stone, was near St. Paul's lane, and stood till the erection of the present county Jail, in 1800.

In 1769, an association, aided by a general subscription, procured a fire engine, at an expense of upwards of $250; and took the name of the "Mechanical Company." This was the first engine in the place; and the association which procured it may be regarded as the germ of the present extended and efficient organization of companies for extinguishing fires.

In 1773, about eighty acres of Plowman's, Philpot's and Fell's lands were added to the east of the town. An alms-house was erected, and work provided for the poor. On the 20th of August, Mr. Wm. Goddard commenced the first newspaper, a weekly, under the title of the "Maryland Journal and Baltimore Advertiser." Before this, it was the custom to take the papers from, and send advertisements to, Annapolis and Philadelphia. Soon after, proposals were issued for a circulating library, but the plan failed. Theatrical performances were about this time presented to the inhabitants, in a warehouse on the corner of Frederick and Baltimore streets; but a small theatre was afterwards erected in Water street, and the performances continued till the revolution. The increasing trade and intercourse, at this period, induced the establishment of a line of stages and packets, by the head of Elk, to and from Philadelphia.

When the revolutionary crisis came on, as Annapolis was the capital of the province, the stamps and the teas, upon which duty was to be raised, were sent to that city. There is no doubt, however, that, had they been sent to this place instead of that, their reception would have been resisted with equal energy. On the arrival, in 1774, of the news that the port of Boston had been closed, a meeting was promptly held, and a committee appointed to correspond with the neighboring colonies. Non-exportation resolves were afterwards entered into; collections were made for the distressed Bostonians; and the most decided measures taken to manifest the patriotic zeal of the citizens. Several companies were formed, and great exertions were made to procure arms and ammunition.

Early in the year 1775, there were in the town, 564 houses, and 5,934 inhabitants. In the course of this year, Mr. John Dunlap established a weekly paper, called "Dunlap's Maryland Gazette." A battery was commenced on Whetstone Point, and three massive iron chains, passing through floating blocks, were stretched across the river, leaving a narrow passage only, on the side next the fort. In 1776, the members of the Convention authorized the inhabitants of Baltimore to choose two delegates, to represent the town, exclusive of the four for the county; and on this election there appear to have been 472 votes taken. The population of the Point, about the same time, was 821. On the 22d of July, the Declaration of Independence was proclaimed at the Court House, with great rejoicings. In consequence of the possession of Philadelphia by the British, Congress assembled in Baltimore on the 26th of December of this year. They occupied Mr. Jacob Fite's house, on the south-east corner of Baltimore and Liberty streets, which was long afterwards known as "Congress Hall."

In 1778, foreign goods having become scarce, numerous manufactories of articles which had been prohibited in the colonies, were established in or near the town. Hitherto, the merchants of Baltimore had been obliged to obtain registers, and to enter and clear vessels at Annapolis; but in 1780, a Custom House was opened, and the naval officer, Thomas Sollers, was authorized to grant registers for vessels here. In one week in May, there entered one brig, from France; one ship, three brigs, and five schooners, from the West Indies.

Great difficulty arose, in consequence of the state of the currency; but out of fifty-six debtors to British merchants, who paid their debts into the state treasury in depreciated money, there were but four or five residents of Baltimore town and county. In the latter part of this year, the ladies raised liberal contributions in aid of the suffering soldiers.

In 1781, Fell's Prospect was laid off by the commissioners and added to the town on the east, besides eighteen acres, lying between Bridge, now Gay, and French streets. In September, Gen. Washington passed through Baltimore, on his way to Yorktown; on which occasion the town was illuminated, and an address presented in behalf of the citizens. On the march of La Fayette's detachment for the south, they were so destitute that, on his arrival, he obtained on his own credit from the merchants £2000, with which clothing was purchased. The ladies were, as usual, active in the matter, and the detachment were soon comfortably clad.

In 1782, Col. Howard annexed to the town all his grounds east of the street named by him, "Eutaw." On Lexington street, he laid out a spacious lot for a market, which was improved for that purpose in 1803. He also assigned a large lot of ground on Baltimore street, west of Eutaw, for the use of the State, should the Assembly make Baltimore the seat of government within twenty years: but the proposition has been rejected by the Legislature, as often as made. Up to this time, the streets were unpaved and consequently often impassable; but commissioners were now appointed, to repair the bridges, and grade, level, and pave the streets, beginning with Baltimore street. In November, were added to the town, Gist's Inspection and Timber Neck, lying south of former additions and upon the middle branch; also the lands between Fell's Prospect and Harris's Creek. These were the last specific additions by act of Assembly; and no change of consequence was made in the limits for many years. A line of stage coaches was established this year between Baltimore and Philadelphia, which was afterwards extended to Alexandria. The town had, at this time, eight places of worship, and contained about 8000 inhabitants.

The suspension of hostilities with Great Britain, was celebrated April 21st, 1783, and at night the town was illuminated. The manifestations of joy at this period were doubly appropriate; as not only was the nation beginning a new career of happiness and glory, but the town might also here date the commencement of a progress in wealth and prosperity, scarcely paralleled in the history of American cities. Many merchants from other States and from Europe settled here; new wharves were built; streets were widened and extended; and the establishment of a company to cut a canal on the Susquehanna, of the Potomac canal company, and, not many years after, of a company to unite the Chesapeake and Delaware bays, gives indication of the commencement of that policy which has been pursued up to the present time; having in view the connection of the town by the cheapest and speediest modes of communication with the principal regions of production and seats of trade, and especially with the west. In the course of this year, regular lines of stage coaches were established to Fredericktown and Annapolis.

In 1784, proposals were issued for establishing a Bank, and subscriptions were obtained to a considerable amount, but the plan finally failed. A public dinner was given to Gen. La Fayette in September, and at the same time he and his heirs male were declared by the Legislature, citizens of Maryland. Provision was this year made for lighting the streets; three constables and fourteen watchmen were appointed; and Major Yates was licensed as sole auctioneer. After much disagreement in regard to a location, the Centre Market was erected in Harrison street, on a space originally intended for a canal or dock; Hanover Market, on the north-west corner of Hanover and Canden streets; and Fell's Point Market, on ground appropriated for the purpose by Mr. Fell. The proprietors of estates in the vicinity of the Court House, being desirous to extend northward Calvert street, which was obstructed by the Court House and the elevation on which it stood, raised by subscription a sum of money for the purpose of turning an arch directly under that building; which was successfully accomplished, and the street was extended.

In 1786, there was considerable depression and distress, from the state of trade and the currency. In October, a great freshet occurred. All the bridges, which were of wood, were carried away and much property was destroyed. These structures have been from time to time renewed, as successive overflows have occurred from the Falls; the last experiment having been to replace the stone bridges, erected about the year 1810, by wooden structures of a single arch. In 1787, the Baltimore Fire Insurance Co. was incorporated, and was followed by the Maryland, Equitable, and other companies. The state of the roads was represented as a public grievance, and turnpikes to Washington, Frederick, and Reisterstown were authorized, though not constructed till some years after. Baltimore street was this year extended beyond Col. Howard's addition, and an unsuccessful attempt was made to introduce water into the town by pipes.

On the 17th of April, 1789, Gen. Washington, on his way to New York to assume the Presidency, under the new Constitution, was entertained by the citizens. This year, Drs. Johnson, Boyd, and others, attempted to lay the foundation of a medical school, but without success. A new channel for the Falls was cut, from Bath street to Gay street bridge; and the old course, near the Court House, was gradually filled up. In 1790, the Bank of Maryland was chartered, with a capital of $300,000. A branch of the Bank of United States followed in 1792, the Bank of Baltimore in 1795, and others at different periods. The vessels belonging to the port were, 27 ships, 31 brigs, 1 snow, 34 schooners, and 9 sloops, carrying in all, 13,564 tons. According to the first census taken by the general government in 1790, the population amounted to 13,503; viz: 6,422 white males; 5,503 white females; 323 other free persons; 1,255 slaves.

In 1792, the wealth and population of the town were much increased by the arrival of a large number of fugitives from the massacre of Hispaniola. In 1795, the Library Company was formed. In 1796, after the subject had been long discussed in the public prints and by the citizens, a City Charter was obtained from the Legislature. The city was laid off into eight wards, and early in 1797, the election for city officers took place. James Calhoun, Esq., was the first Mayor. One of the first acts of the corporation was an address expressive of gratitude and respect to Gen. Washington, as he passed through the city on his return home, at the expiration of his second term of office. In 1797, the building called the Assembly Rooms, on Holliday street, was erected, and the City Library was incorporated. In 1799, a piece of ground north of Saratoga street, was added to the city. Pratt street was opened from Frederick street to the Falls and a bridge erected. In June, 1800, President Adams passed through the city, and an address was presented by the corporation. Dr. John B. Davidge erected a hall near the south-east intersection of Liberty and Saratoga streets, and, with others, commenced a course of medical lectures; but a great excitement arose on account of the dissections, and a mob demolished the building and destroyed the preparations. The lectures were continued at the county Alms House. The population, by the census of this year, amounted to 31,514;—being an increase of 18,011, within ten years.

In 1801, a society was formed to dispense medicines to the poor without charge, which, in 1807, was incorporated as the Baltimore General Dispensary. In 1803, the Right Rev. Bishop Carroll and others procured a charter for Baltimore College, which was established in Mulberry street. In 1804, St. Mary's College, which had been established in 1791, was much improved, and a handsome Gothic church added to the establishment. In 1805, a new Court House was commenced on North Calvert street. It was finished in 1809, when the old arched Court House was taken down. On the 6th of July, 1806, the foundation of the Roman Catholic Cathedral was laid. The business of the city received a check in 1807, from the general embargo, which continued till March 16th, 1809. During this year, Drs. Davidge, Shaw, and Cocke were authorized to raise funds by lottery to erect buildings for a medical college. The college in Lombard street was at once begun, under the superintendence of R. C. Long, architect; though not completed till 1812. About the year 1808, several companies were organized for the manufacture of domestic goods on the streams in the neighborhood of the city.

In 1809, a public fountain was erected by the corporation on North Calvert street. Eight years after, the city purchased and improved the springs in the south and east parts of the city, and placed a fountain, supplied by the Water Company, at the head of the Centre Market. In this year, the three great turnpikes, authorized by the act of 1787, were completed, having cost about a million and a half of dollars. It was in this year also, that James A. Buchanan and others obtained permission to raise $100,000, to erect a monument to the memory of Washington. It was at first intended that it should occupy the site of the old Court House, in what is now called Monument Square; but the design was afterwards changed, from an apprehension that so lofty a column might expose the neighboring houses to danger from lightning, and an eligible site, at the intersection of Charles and Monument streets, was given by Col. John E. Howard. The base of this beautiful column is fifty feet square, and twenty feet high; the column, one hundred and sixty feet, and the statue, thirteen feet. On the four sides of the base are inscriptions, indicating the dates of important events in the life of the Father of his Country. In 1810, there were, according to the census, 46,555 inhabitants.

In 1811, Mr. Hezekiah Niles established "the Weekly Register," a most valuable publication, still in existence and conducted by Mr. Jeremiah Hughes. In 1812, an unhappy affray occurred in consequence of excitement against the editors of the "Federal Republican;" in which several persons were killed and some wounded. Several gentlemen of the city took commissions in the army, as soon as war was declared against England, and a number of privateers was fitted out. In 1813, the first steamboat, called the Chesapeake, was put on the line to Philadelphia, via French Town. On the 16th of May, was laid the corner stone of the Masonic Hall, with appropriate ceremonies. On the 12th of September, 1814, was fought the battle of North Point, the particulars of which are already familiar to every citizen. On the 12th of September, 1815, the foundation stone of the "Battle Monument," in honor of those who fell at North Point in the defence of the city, was laid on the site of the old Court House, and where it had been first intended to place the Washington Monument.

In 1815, an incorporated company commenced the erection of the Exchange, fronting on Gay, Water and Second streets. It is a large, commodious building, occupied by Banks, &c., and having the Exchange Hall in the centre. In 1816, the Gas Company erected their works on the corner of North and Saratoga streets. At the session of this year, the limits of the city were extended, so as to take in the old precincts and form a parallelogram, about three and a half miles from north to south, and four and a half from east to west. The City Court was organized this year, and Nicholas Brice was appointed chief Judge. In March, 1817, St. Paul's church was consecrated and the old church taken down. In June, 1817, President Monroe visited the city and was invited to a public dinner, which he declined. In 1818, a society was formed to induce the industrious to save a portion of their earnings, which was afterwards incorporated as the "Savings Bank." The city was now divided into twelve wards. In 1819, Gen. Jackson visited the city, and received and answered an address from the city authorities. This year was marked by great distress, arising from the appearance of the yellow fever at the Point, the failure of the City Bank, and the fall in the price of flour and tobacco in foreign markets. By the census of 1820, the population of the city was ascertained to be 62,738; being an increase of 16,183, in ten years, and of 49,235, since 1790.

On the 31st of May, 1821, the Cathedral, the building of which had been begun in 1806, suspended during the war, and re-commenced in 1817, was consecrated. The form is that of a cross; its length, 166 feet; breadth, 77 feet; and across the transept, 115 feet. It yet wants the portico on the western front; but through the exertions of an association formed for the purpose, it has been surrounded by a handsome iron railing, and a sexton's lodge has been erected. In November of this year, a committee of gentlemen from Maryland and Pennsylvania, examined the Susquehanna, with a view to the removal of obstructions in the navigation. In the beginning of 1822, the small pox prevailed to a considerable extent. The city and county purchased the present location of the Alms House. In December, 1823, at a great meeting held at the Exchange, on the subject of canals, the majority decided in favor of the Susquehanna, in preference to the Potomac. In April, 1824, the steamboat Eagle, plying between Baltimore and Annapolis, burst her boiler; the first fatal accident of the kind on the waters of the Chesapeake. In October, Gen. La Fayette visited the city, and was received with the utmost enthusiasm. In January, 1825, he returned and partook of a splendid dinner, offered him by the fraternity of Masons.

In February, 1825, a bill passed the House of Delegates, allowing the city four delegates, but met with opposition in the Senate. On July 26th, 1826, a public funeral procession took place, and a funeral oration was delivered by Gen. Smith, in honor of Adams and Jefferson, recently deceased. In March, 1827, Wm. Patterson, Esq., presented to the city, two squares of ground, on Hampstead Hill, for a public walk. On the 31st of the same month the book of subscriptions to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad was closed. The amount subscribed, in the city alone, was over four millions of dollars. On the 4th of July, 1828, the first or corner stone of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad was laid by the venerable Charles Carroll, and a grand civic procession was formed on the occasion. On the 8th of August, 1829, a centennial celebration of the settlement of Baltimore was held, and an oration was delivered by W. George Read, Esq. The Baltimore and Susquehanna Railroad Company embraced this opportunity to lay the corner stone of that improvement. On the 21st of September, 1829, the first public school was opened. In 1830, the population of the city was 80,990.

In 1832, the Canton Company was actively engaged in clearing and laying out its grounds. During this year, the cholera prevailed to a considerable extent. In 1835, the stock debt of the city was about $1,000,000; mostly for internal improvements. In March, of this year, a meeting of congratulation was held, on account of the passage, by the House of Delegates, of a bill to loan $2,000,000 to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, and $1,000,000 to the Susquehanna Railroad. In April, the bill authorizing the construction of the canal to tide of the Susquehanna, was passed by the Legislature of Pennsylvania, and the news was received in Baltimore with great rejoicing. A rage for speculation prevailed about this time, and shares of Canton stock, on which $54 had been paid, were sold in some of the eastern cities for $260.—In August, 1835, great excitement prevailed, mainly arising from the failure, some time previous, of the bank of Maryland and other institutions, by which heavy losses were sustained by the public. Mobs assembled, and, holding for a time the authorities at defiance, destroyed the dwellings of several citizens; but the reign of riot was finally checked by the firmness of the friends of order and by the display of military force. Several lives were lost in the contests which occurred between the rioters and the armed citizens. Those who had sustained losses through the violence of the mob, were afterwards indemnified, at a cost to the city of over $100,000.

On the 25th of August, 1835, the branch railroad was formally opened to Washington. In 1836, the railroad to Philadelphia was projected. In March of this year, the City Council voted to subscribe $3,000,000 to the stock of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. In May, the books of subscription to the stock of the Maryland Canal were closed; but the work is yet to be commenced. The stock of the Tide Water Canal was subscribed for in June of this year. On the 11th of May, 1837, the banks of the city followed the example of those of New York and Philadelphia, and suspended specie payments. The Green Mount Cemetery was purchased this year, was dedicated in 1839, and has been rapidly improved. In June, a most extensive and destructive inundation occurred, from the sudden rise of the waters of Jones's Falls; by which property to an immense amount was destroyed, not only within the limits of the city, but also for some miles along the line of the stream, and many lives were lost. On the 14th of June, 1838, the Pulaski, a steam packet running between Baltimore and Savannah, was nearly destroyed by the explosion of her boiler, while on a return trip to this place. Out of one hundred and sixty-nine passengers on board, but fifty-nine were saved. On the 13th of August, the banks resumed the payment of specie. On the 10th of October, 1839, they again suspended specie payments. In 1840, the population of the city was 102,513.

In February, 1841, the banks resumed the payment of specie, but continued it only eight days. On the 2d of May, 1842, they again resumed, and have since continued without interruption. The deranged state of the currency previous to this period, had given rise to several establishments called "Savings Institutions;" designed ostensibly for the purpose of supplying the public with small notes; but, whatever might have been the views of the projectors, they exploded, one after another, inflicting a considerable loss on the public. Notes, called "orders," issued by the city and by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, were also largely circulated during the suspension. It is certainly a just ground for pride and congratulation that, during the severest pressure of this gloomy period, when the credit of other cities was reeling before the effects of distrust and commercial embarrassments, Baltimore sustained herself so firmly, and passed through the storm so well. No more convincing or satisfactory proof can be given of her substantial resources, and of the prudence, foresight and noble spirit of her merchants, than the steadiness with which they met the prostration of trade, and the promptness with which they sustained each other in the hour of need.

The city, for the past few years, has been so quietly moving on in the path of prosperity, that but few incidents have occurred worthy of special record. We must not omit to mention, however, the Magnetic Telegraph, invented by Prof. Morse, which commenced its operations in May, 1844, and affords instant communication between Baltimore and Washington. This ingenious application of the magnetic force to the immediate transmission of intelligence, is destined to work astonishing changes in the intercourse and communications between cities and countries. The population of the city is rapidly increasing; trade is steadily improving; manufactures are spreading on the adjacent streams; and in the various branches of the mechanic arts, her workmen yield to none in the land for faithfulness, taste, and skill. Of the education of her children she is not unmindful; since she sustains twenty public schools, including one Male High School, and two Female High Schools, besides fostering a large number of private institutions and two Colleges; and that her people are alive to their religious interests, may be inferred from the fact that there are in the city nearly one hundred churches, generally well supported, and many of them new and of great architectural beauty. Of the healthfulness of the city, some conclusions may be drawn from the statement that the deaths during the past year were 2879. Among these were nine persons over one hundred years old—one 104; one 105; one 114, and one 115.

Having thus sketched, though far more at length than we at first intended, events connected with the settlement and progress of Baltimore up to the present time, we proceed to remark, very briefly, upon the position and prospects of the city.

It needs but a glance at the map of the United States, to see the great and manifold advantages of her position. In the centre of the Union, on the great line of intercourse between the North and South, eligibly situated on navigable waters, easily accessible by sea, in the vicinity of an immense resource of water power, within striking distance of regions of abundant fertility, and already, by her greater proximity, a favored competitor with other cities for the trade of the adjacent States, and of the great west, who can wonder that her progress has been rapid in population and prosperity, and who can doubt that she will yet rival the proudest cities of the continent, in all that constitutes the true greatness of a commercial emporium?

If, with the simple advantages of position, and in the face of difficulties of intercourse with the country and of other impediments, Baltimore has flourished, there can be no doubt that, when she is enabled fully to avail herself of the additional advantages afforded by the improvements of the age in ease and rapidity of intercourse and cheapness of transportation, her future will be even more prosperous than her former career. These are rapidly coming into action; and the time is not far distant when the branches of her Railroads and Canals shall, like those of the tree mentioned by the psalmist, "go to the rivers and the sea." These avenues of communication, branching off in all directions,—to the East, to the North, to the West, and to the South,—may be regarded as lines of radiation; by which the rays of an invigorating trade shall here meet and combine, as in a common focus; not merely imparting the glow of commercial prosperity to the centre, but also transmitting a reciprocal advantage to every region within the reach of its extended influence.

With the Baltimore and Philadelphia Railroad, the Tide Water Canal, the Susquehanna Railroad, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, with their branches, and the many other modes of communication, by roads, rivers, and bay, our city seems to stand ready, Briareus-like, to extend its hundred iron arms, and to grasp all the elements of wealth and prosperity, held in untold abundance in regions within its reach. That it can be done is evident, both from what has been done and from a consideration of existing circumstances;—that it must be done is certain; unless the people of Baltimore are willing to yield the palm to other cities, less favorably situated, but more far-sighted and enterprising; or unless the people of Maryland, misled by prejudices which are as unfounded as they are injurious, overlook the fact that their interests are inseparably connected with those of Baltimore; and that whatever tends to her emolument, tends to the advantage of the State at large.

At the same time, all parties must be assured that the city, in thus claiming the friendly offices and the good will of patriotic citizens, acts no merely selfish part, and desires no advantages or assistance at the expense of the country. If Baltimore be made a place of greater trade and increased facilities for the exchange of commodities, the agriculturist, the miner, the manufacturer, all, will derive an immediate benefit from her means of cheap and rapid transportation, her active market, her fair prices and prompt pay. All Marylanders have an interest, then, in the speedy completion of those great works, which, with an admirable foresight, have been planned to diminish in effect the distance between the city and the interior, and which are advancing, in the face of every obstacle, to a completion.

It is true, there are difficulties yet to be overcome, and wants yet to be supplied; but modern cities, although sometimes of mushroom growth, are not, any more than ancient cities, to be built in a day. The unfortunate condition of the finances of the State, and the consequent weight of taxation, constitute a heavy burden; but with the right spirit this may be borne, until measures are adopted and carried into execution calculated to afford relief. The lack of foreign packets has also been dwelt upon by some, with much earnestness; but this is rather an imaginary than a real obstruction. Thus far, our capital has, for many years, found its most profitable investment in other than foreign commerce;—but when such a state of things occurs as will warrant the employment of capital in this department of commercial action, it will certainly come. Every step made towards uniting our city with the interior of Maryland and the adjacent States, and the distant but productive regions of the West, is a step taken towards extending our relations, not only with our Atlantic cities, but with every quarter of the globe.

Let Baltimoreans, then, and all who have the good of the city and the State at heart, stand shoulder to shoulder in every effort to draw closer the bonds of union between the city and the country;—and may the reward of their united labors be—a State untrammelled by debt and prosperous in the productive employment of its great mineral, manufacturing, and agricultural resources, and a city noted for its enterprise and prosperity, and exhibiting, as its proudest monuments, the honesty, the integrity, the intelligence, and the patriotism of its citizens!

PLAN OF THE WARDS.

An Ordinance for the Division of the City of Baltimore into Fourteen Wards.

Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That from and after the passage of this Ordinance, the City of Baltimore shall be divided into fourteen Wards, bounded and described as follows, that is to say:

The FIRST WARD to comprise all that part of the city contained within the following bounds:—Beginning on the centre lines of Market street, Fell's Point, with the water of the harbor; and thence along the line of said street to the centre line of Fleet street; and thence westwardly on said line to the centre line of Bond street; thence on said street northwardly to the centre line of East Baltimore street; and thence eastwardly with said line and the Philadelphia road to the east line of the city; and thence with said line southwardly to the water of the harbor; and thence with said water to the place of beginning.

The SECOND WARD to comprise all that part of the city contained within the following bounds;—Beginning on the centre line of Market street, Fell's Point, and the water of the harbor; and thence northwardly binding on said line to the centre line of Fleet street; and thence westwardly with said line to the centre line of Bond street; and thence northwardly with said line to the centre line of East Baltimore street; and thence westwardly on said line to the centre line of Canal street; and thence southwardly on said line to the city dock; and thence with the line of said water to the place of beginning.

The THIRD WARD to comprise all that part of the city contained within the following bounds:—Beginning on the centre line of East Baltimore and Canal streets, thence northwardly on the centre line of Canal street to Pitt street; thence on the centre line of said street westwardly to Aisquith street; thence northwardly on said line to the centre line of the Harford turnpike road; thence eastwardly on said line to the north line of the city; and thence on the north and east boundary line to the centre line of the Philadelphia road; and thence westwardly on said road and East Baltimore street to the place of beginning.

The FOURTH WARD to comprise all that part of the city contained within the following bounds:—Beginning on the centre lines of Pitt street and Jones' Falls; and thence on the centre line of Pitt street eastwardly to the centre line of Canal street; and thence on said line southwardly to the water of the city dock; and thence on said water westwardly to the centre line of Jones' Falls; and thence northwardly on said line to the place of beginning.

The FIFTH WARD to comprise all that part of the city contained within the following bounds:—Beginning on the centre line of Pitt street and Jones' Falls; and thence northwardly on said line to the centre line of Hillen street; and thence eastwardly on said line to the centre line of Monument street; and thence eastwardly on said line to Aisquith street; and thence southwardly on said line to the centre line of Pitt street; and thence westwardly on said line to the place of beginning.

The SIXTH WARD to comprise all that part of the city contained within the following bounds:—Beginning at the intersection of Hillen street and Jones' Falls; and thence on Jones' Falls northwardly to the limits of the city; and thence on said line eastwardly to the Harford road; and thence on said line south to centre of line of Aisquith street; and thence on said line to the centre line of Monument street; and thence on said line westwardly to the centre line of Hillen street; and thence westwardly to the place of beginning.

The SEVENTH WARD to comprise all that part of the city contained within the following bounds:—Beginning at the Belvidere bridge over Jones' Falls, thence along the centre of Jones' Falls to the mouth thereof at the north side of the basin; thence westwardly along the north side of the basin to Gay street; thence along Gay street to East Baltimore street; thence westwardly on said street to North street; thence northwardly along said street to the place of beginning.

The EIGHTH WARD to comprise all that part of the city which is contained within the following bounds:—Beginning at the Belvidere bridge over Jones' Falls; thence southwardly along the centre of North street to Gay street; thence southwardly on the centre line of said street to the water; thence westwardly running and binding on the water until the same intersects the south intersection of Bowly's wharf and Pratt street; thence west along the centre of Pratt street to Hanover street; thence north along Hanover street to Baltimore street; thence west along Baltimore to Liberty street; thence north along Liberty street to Saratoga street; thence west to the centre of College alley; thence along the centre of said alley to the centre line of Mulberry street; thence along Mulberry street eastwardly to Cathedral street; and thence northwardly along Cathedral street to the city limits; thence eastwardly to Jones' Falls; thence along Jones' Falls to the place of beginning.

The NINTH WARD to comprise all that part of the city contained within the following bounds:—Beginning at the intersection of Hanover and Pratt streets; thence along the centre of Hanover street to Ostend street; thence west along Ostend street to the north side of the middle branch of the Patapsco; thence along the shores of the middle, main, and north-west branch of Patapsco to Light street; thence along the eastern side of Light street to Pratt street; thence along the centre of Pratt street to the place of beginning.

BANKING INSTITUTIONS.

RULES OBSERVED BY THE BANKS IN THIS CITY.

Every Bill or Note offered for discount must be delivered the day preceding the day of discount.

Bills or Notes lodged at the Banks for collection, when protested for non-payment—the person lodging the same pays the charge of protest.

Deposites of money, or notes for collection, must be entered in the dealer's book at the time such deposite is made.

The Banks are open every day in the year, from nine to three in the afternoon, except Sundays, Fourth of July and Christmas.

The interest for discount in the Banks in this city is fixed at six per centum per annum. Three days of grace are allowed, and the discount taken for the same.

THE STAMP ACT.

AN ACT imposing duties on Promissory Notes, Bills of Exchange, Specialities and other Instruments of Writing, to aid in paying the debts of the State.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the tenth day of May next, there shall be levied, collected and paid in this State, the several stamp duties following: for every skin or piece of vellum, or parchment, or sheet or piece of paper or other material, upon which shall be printed or written any or either of the instruments of writing following, to wit: on any bond, obligation, single bill or promissory note or notes, made or executed in this State above one hundred dollars, and note made or issued by any incorporated Bank of this State, and on any foreign or inland bill of exchange or other evidence of debt above one hundred dollars, whether endorsed or otherwise, and whether made or issued by any incorporated institution, individual or firm, according to the following scale, that is to say—If not exceeding two hundred dollars, ten cents; if above two hundred dollars and not exceeding three hundred dollars, fifteen cents; if above three hundred dollars and not exceeding five hundred dollars, twenty-five cents; if above five hundred dollars and not exceeding one thousand dollars, fifty cents; if above one thousand dollars and not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars, seventy-five cents; if above fifteen hundred dollars and not exceeding two thousand dollars, one dollar; if above two thousand dollars and not exceeding three thousand dollars, one dollar and fifty cents; if above three thousand dollars and not exceeding four thousand dollars, two dollars; if above four thousand dollars and not exceeding five thousand dollars, two dollars and fifty cents; if above five thousand dollars and not exceeding seven thousand dollars, three dollars and fifty cents; if above seven thousand dollars and not exceeding eight thousand dollars, four dollars; if above eight thousand dollars and not exceeding ten thousand dollars, five dollars and fifty cents; and if above ten thousand dollars, six dollars: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to charge with a duty, or to require to be stamped any Bond of this State, or certificate of debt issued by this State, in pursuance of any law of this State, or any certificate or other evidence of the debt of the city of Baltimore, or of any other of the incorporated towns or cities in this State, or the certificates of the stock of the Banks, or other incorporated institutions of this State, or to any check payable at sight, upon any Bank, Company or Banker in this State, or to charge with a duty, any second, or other copy of a Bill of Exchange.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Loans, or of some officer to be appointed by the Governor, to cause to be provided so many marks and stamps, differing from each other, as shall correspond with the several rates of duty aforesaid; that is to say, one mark or stamp for each distinct rate of duty, with which marks and stamps respectively shall be marked or stamped, all vellum, parchment or paper, or other material upon which shall be written or printed, all or any of the instruments, writings, matters or things herein before enumerated and charged, according to the nature and description thereof, which said several marks and stamps shall be notified by a public notification or advertisement, to be issued by the Commissioner of Loans, or other officer to be appointed by the Governor as aforesaid, and inserted in at least two newspapers, printed in the City of Baltimore, and one newspaper in each County in this State, where a newspaper is printed, and for not less than thirty days before the said tenth day of May next, to the end that all persons may have due notice thereof, and which said marks and stamps shall and may be altered or renewed from time to time, as the said Commissioner of Loans, or other officer to be appointed by the Governor, shall think fit. So that like public notification thereof be made before such new stamps or marks shall begin to be used.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That all the paper, parchment, or vellum or other material required for the purpose of this act, shall be furnished at the expense of this State, by the Treasurer thereof, who is hereby authorized to expend annually a sufficient sum for that purpose, and for defraying the expense of stamping, as required by this act.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the paper, parchment, vellum or other material, when so stamped under the direction of the Commissioner of Loans or other officer to be appointed by the Governor, shall be distributed to the Clerks of the several Counties of this State, and of Howard District and of the City of Baltimore, in convenient and necessary quantities, taking duplicate receipts from the said Clerks of the same, one of which receipts shall be forthwith transmitted to the Treasurer of this State; the said stamps to be accounted for by the said Clerks in the manner hereinafter directed.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That when any person or persons shall desire to have vellum, parchment, paper, or other materials stamped or marked so that the same may be afterwards used by him or them, as though he or they had obtained the said vellum, parchment, paper, or other material, already stamped or marked from the Clerk of the County Court, the City Court of Baltimore, or of Howard District Court, as is herein provided, such person or persons shall present the said vellum, parchment, paper or other material to the said Commissioner of Loans, or officer to be appointed by the Governor, who shall, upon receiving from such person or persons, the amount of the duties chargeable thereupon, stamp or mark the said paper, parchment, vellum or other material with such stamps or marks as the said person or persons may require,—provided, that nothing in this section contained, shall authorize a stamp or mark to be put upon any of the instruments, whether written or printed, enumerated in this act, after the same shall have been perfected and executed, and it shall be the duty of the said Commissioner of Loans, or officer to be appointed by the Governor, on the first days of June, September, December and March, in each and every year, after the passage of this act, to account with and pay over to the Treasurer of this State, all sum or sums of money received under the provisions of this section, and on failure so to account and pay over, within ten days from the days above limited for that purpose, the Treasurer shall give notice thereof to the Deputy of the Attorney General for the City of Baltimore, whose duty it shall be to put the bond of such Commissioner of Loans, or officer appointed by the Governor, in suit for the use of this State, which shall be liable therefor, as for any other default of the principal obligor or obligors therein, and a recovery shall be had upon the said bond for the whole amount due thereupon, with interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum from the time of such default.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That whenever any person or persons shall apply to any of the said Clerks for the purchase, at one time, of any quantity of vellum, parchment, paper, or other material, stamped and marked in the manner aforesaid, the whole amount of the duties on which quantity shall be ten dollars or upwards, such Clerk shall be, and he is hereby authorized and required to deliver to such person or persons, such quantity of vellum, parchment, paper or other material stamped as aforesaid, the said person or persons paying down the amount of the said duties, after deducting therefrom seven and one-half per centum on such amount, which deduction the said Clerk is hereby authorized and required to allow.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall write or print or cause to be written or printed, upon any unstamped vellum, parchment, paper or other material, (with intent fraudulently to evade the duties imposed by this act) any of the matters and things for which the said vellum, parchment, paper or other material, is hereby charged to pay any duty, or shall write or print, or cause to be written or printed any matter or thing, upon any vellum, parchment, paper or other material, than shall be marked or stamped for any lower duty than the duty by this act payable, or shall write or print, or cause to be written or printed on vellum, parchment, paper or other material, duly stamped, any matters or things, in respect whereof a duty is payable as aforesaid, at a distance from the stamps or marks, impressed upon the said vellum, parchment, paper or other material, with intent again to use the said stamps, vellum, parchment, paper or other material, or with intent fraudulently to evade the duties imposed by this act, or shall write or print, or cause to be written or printed any matters or things, in respect whereof a duty is payable, on any piece of stamped vellum, parchment, paper or other material, whereon shall have been before written or printed any other matter or thing, in respect whereof a duty is payable by this act, before such vellum, parchment, paper or other material shall have been again duly stamped or marked according to this act, every such person so offending shall, for every such offence, forfeit the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered by indictment or information in the County Court of the County, or of Howard District, or in the City Court of Baltimore, one moiety thereof to the use of this State, and the other moiety thereof to the use of the informer, who shall be a competent witness upon the trial of such indictment or information.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That no instrument of writing whatsoever, charged by this act with the payment of a duty as aforesaid, shall be placed or given in evidence in any Court of this State, or admitted in any such Court, to be available in law or in equity, or shall be valid or available for any purpose whatsoever, unless the same shall be stamped or marked as aforesaid. Provided, that if any such instrument of writing shall have been written or printed, upon vellum, parchment, paper or other material not marked or stamped according to this act. or upon vellum, parchment, paper or other material, marked or stamped for a lower duty than ought to be paid upon the same, then and in such a case, it shall be lawful for the person or persons, holding such instrument, to make oath or affirmation, as the case may be, that at the time of making or receiving such instrument of writing, the said holder or holders thereof did not know of such requisitions, that the said instrument of writing was made or received through inadvertence or forgetfulness thereof, and with no intention to evade the provisions of this act, and to pay to the Clerk of the County or of Howard District, or of the City Court of Baltimore, as the case may be, the duty chargeable by law on such instrument of writing, together with ten dollars in addition thereto, which duty and additional sum such Clerk is hereby authorized and required to receive and to endorse or receipt therefor under his hand, upon some part of such instrument of writing, and he shall also endorse thereon the oath or affirmation to be taken as aforesaid after which endorsement and not otherwise, such instrument or writing shall be, to all intents and purposes, as valid and available, as if the same had been, or were stamped or marked, as by this act required. And if any person with intent to defraud this State, of any sum or sums of money, directed to be paid by this act, shall counterfeit or forge, or cause or procure to be counterfeited or forged any receipt or endorsement provided for and directed by this act, or shall, with the intent aforesaid, counterfeit or forge, or cause or procure to be counterfeited or forged, any stamp or mark provided for and directed by this act, or shall utter, pass away, vend or offer in evidence in any Court of Justice, any such forged or counterfeited receipt or endorsement or mark or stamp, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, then every person so offending and being thereof convicted in due form of law, shall be adjudged to be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding seven years at the discretion of the Court.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said Clerks, on the first days of June, September, December and March in each and every year after the passage of this act, to account with and pay over to the Treasurer of this State all sum or sums of money received by them under the provisions of this act, including the additional sums, which they may receive under the last preceding section, after deducting therefrom a commission of one per centum upon the amount so paid over as a compensation for their services, and the said account, which shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of the said Clerk, shall show the amount and number of stamps or marks remaining in their hands; and in case the said Cleaks shall fail to account and pay as aforesaid, within thirty days from the days above limited for that purpose, the Treasurer shall give notice thereof to the Deputy of the Attorney General for the proper County, District or City, whose duty it shall be to put the bond of such Clerk in suit, for the use of this State, which shall be liable therefor, as for any other default of the principal obligor or obligors therein, and a recovery shall be had upon the said bond for the whole amount of stamps sent or delivered by the Commissioner or other officer to the said Clerk, with interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum, from the time of such default; and a recovery upon the bonds of any of the said Clerks, for any default under the provisions of this act shall be evidence of misbehaviour in office and ipso facto, remove such Clerk from office, which thereupon shall be filled by the Governor, as prescribed by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons, at the time of the repeal or expiration of this act, shall have on hand any quantity of vellum, parchment, paper, or other material stamped or marked, in the manner aforesaid, of which no use shall have been made, such person or persons, upon returning the same to the Treasurer of this State, shall be entitled to receive from him out of the Treasury, the amount of the duties on such vellum, parchment, paper or other material, so returned as aforesaid.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That there shall be paid to the Commissioner of Loans, or other officer to be appointed by the Governor, as a compensation for the services imposed upon him by this act, the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars, and he is hereby authorized to employ one Clerk at a salary not exceeding five hundred dollars, and an Assistant, either from year to year or from time to time, as may be necessary, at an annual expense not exceeding five hundred dollars, and the said Commissioner of Loans, or other officer to be appointed by the Governor, shall give bond in a penalty, and with condition and surety to be prescribed by and approved by the Governor, for the faithful performance of all the duties imposed upon such Commissioner of Loans, or other officer, by the provisions of this act.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That every person who shall be employed for the marking or stamping of vellum, parchment, paper or other material as aforesaid, shall, before his acting in the making or stamping thereof, take an oath or affirmation, that he will, according to the best of his knowledge and skill, faithfully, honestly and carefully execute the trust reposed in him, and will truly mark or stamp all vellum, parchment, paper other material, which he shall be required or directed to mark or stamp, and will render a true and exact account thereof to the proper officer or officers.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be taken or held to prohibit the printing or purchase of the blank forms of any of the instruments of writing herein enumerated, provided the same, before being used, are marked or stamped as by this act required.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That this act shall continue and be in force until the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

Sec. 15. And be it enacted, That the severa Clerks of the County Courts, the Clerk of Howard District Court, and the Clerk of Baltimore City Court shall, on or before the tenth day of May next, give bond with sureties to be approved by the said Courts respectively, or one of the Judges thereof, and in the penalties hereinafter mentioned, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties imposed upon the said Clerks by the provisions of this act, and for the payment by them into the Treasury of this State, of all sums of money, which they may receive by virtue thereof, at the periods hereinbefore limited for that purpose, that is to say, the penalty of the bond of the Clerk of Baltimore County Court shall be twenty thousand dollars, that of the Clerk of Baltimore City Court shall be twenty thousand dollars, and the penalties of the bonds of each of the other Clerks mentioned in this act, shall be five thousand dollars, which said bonds shall be executed, filed, and recorded in the same manner as the bonds of such Clerks are now required to be executed, filed and recorded. D. CLAUDE, Treas. Md.

J. SWAN, Stamp Commissioner, Merchants' Bank, Baltimore.

THE POSTAGE REFORM BILL.

The following is an accurate synopsis of the provisions of the Postage Reform bill, which was passed and signed by the President on the last day of the session. A supplement provides that all the provisions of the Post Office bill shall go into effect on the first of July next. By an oversight, some of the prohibitions and penalties had been left in the bill so stated as to go into effect immediately.

1. After the 1st of July next, all single letters are to be charged five cents for transmission under 300 miles, and ten cents for over that distance. Double letters pay double price, triple letters triple price, &c. Letters weighing less than half an ounce are to be accounted single, and every additional half ounce is to be charged additional single postage. Drop letters pay two cents, and letters advertised are to pay the cost of advertisement.

2. Newspapers of 1900 square inches or less go free within thirty miles of where they are printed; for greater distances they are subject to the rates of the law of 1825; and newspapers of greater size are to pay the rates charged upon magazines and pamphlets.

3. Circulars, handbills, &c., printed on single cap paper, or no larger, and unsealed, pay two cents each, whatever distance they may be sent; pamphlets, magazines, &c., pay two and a half cents per copy of an ounce weight or less, and one cent additional for each additional ounce, whatever be the distance; and fractional excesses of not less than half an ounce are to be charged as full ounces.

4. The Postmaster General, in case of an overloaded or retarded mail, is authorized to send the letter mail at its usual speed by separate conveyance.

5. All the franking provisions of former acts are repealed, [though restored by subsequent actions.]

6. All officers of the Government are to keep account of postages payable by them on mail matter, touching the business of their offices, and these are to be paid quarterly out of the contingent fund of the department to which they belong. The three assistant Post Master Generals, have the franking privilege on letters touching their business, and are required to endorse all letters "official business"; and are to pay $300 for every such endorsement falsely made. Deputy Post Masters have the same privilege under the same restrictions and penalties. When the commissions of any Post Master are less than $25 per annum, they may be increased by the Postmaster General, not to exceed 50 per cent. on the letter postage received. The sums chargeable on all franked matter are to be paid from the contingent fund of the two Houses and the Departments, or in default thereof from the U. States Treasury.

7. Public documents may be transmitted by State Governors, Members of Congress, Delegates from Territories, the Secretary and Clerk of the House, free of postage, as heretofore.

8. The same persons may send or receive, during the session of Congress, and for thirty days before and after, letters weighing less than two ounces, as heretofore; and postage chargeable on letters touching official business, and weighing more than two ounces, is to be paid from the contingent funds of Congress.

9. No person shall, in any way, be instrumental in conveying over mail routes, out of the mail, any mailable matter except newspapers, pamphlets, magazines and periodicals; and every person offending against this provision, directly or indirectly, is to forfeit $150 for each offence.

10. Boats, stages, cars, &c., are prohibited from conveying letters or any other mailable matter, with the before specified exceptions, and except such letters as may relate to some part of the cargo or articles conveyed, under the penalty of $100 for each offence, to be paid by the owners; and $50 to be paid by the driver, captain, conductor, &c.

11. Owners of conveyances are subjected to the same penalties, for transporting persons acting as private expresses, as the persons themselves; but nothing in the act is to be construed as prohibiting the conveyance of letters or packages by private hands, when no compensation is tendered, or by a special messenger employed for a single occasion.

12. All persons who shall after the passage of the act transmit by any prohibited private express, mailable matter, or place at any designated spot, or deliver such matter for transportation, forfeit for each offence $50.

13. Letters may be conveyed by steamboats, as provided by the act of 1825, provided they are delivered on arrival, to the authorized agent of the Post Office Department, who shall charge upon them ordinary postage; and no Postmaster shall receive, to be conveyed by mail, any packet weighing over three pounds.

14. The Postmaster General has power to contract with steamboat owners, for extra occasions, without the previous advertisements required by law, provided the price to be paid does not exceed the average rate.

15. Mailable matter is defined; and it allows the conveyance of books, magazines, pamphlets, or newspapers not directed nor intended for distribution, out of the mail, to subscribers, but for sale as merchandise.

16. Forging, or uttering stamps provided for in this law, is declared to be felony and to subject the offender to imprisonment for not less than six months nor more than five years; and to fine not over $5,000.

17. Newspapers are defined, and a free exchange is allowed as heretofore.

18. All penalties and forfeitures incurred under this act go, half to the informer and prosecutor, and the other half to the Government; and all causes of action may be sued before the Judicial Courts of the States and Territories.

19. Mail contracts are to be given to the lowest bidder; and advertisements of letters uncalled for to be made in the newspapers having the largest circulation, the fact to be decided by evidence.

20. The Postmaster General is to divide the railroad routes into three classes, according to the size of the mails, the speed with which they are to be conveyed and the importance of the service; and for conveyance on the roads of the first class not more than $200 per mile per annum; on the second class not over $100; and on the third class not over $50 shall be paid. And if the service can not be obtained for these rates, provision may be made for separating the letter from the general mail, and for the proper conveyance of each portion.

21. All causes of action under this act may be sued before any Circuit or District Court of the U. S. or of the District of Columbia, or the U. S. Territories.

22. The sum of $750,000 is appropriated to supply any possible deficiency in the revenue of the Department under the operation of the law.

23. Any farther deficiency is to be paid out of moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

24. The franking privilege of the widows of Madison and Harrison.

THE

BALTIMORE BUSINESS DIRECTORY,

CONTAINING THE

ADVERTISEMENTS

OF THE PRINCIPAL

MERCHANTS, MANUFACTURERS, MECHANICS, DEALERS, &c.

IN THE VARIOUS BRANCHES OF BUSINESS

IN THE CITY OF BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE:
PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY JOHN MURPHY,
178 MARKET STREET.
1845.

PREFACE.

The Baltimore Business Directory is presented to the public, in the confident expectation that its contents will attract the attention and gain the approval both of citizens and strangers.

To the citizens of Baltimore the Business Directory should commend itself as affording an opportunity of displaying in a bold, varied, and tasteful style, their advertisements in every department of trade;—and to strangers it should not be without its attractions, as offering to them, with only the trouble of examining its pages, the means of ascertaining what inducements are presented by merchants, mechanics, manufacturers, and men of all pursuits, for forming business relations with our prosperous city.

What these inducements are, the Directory will indicate to some extent; although, of course, the names presented form but a portion of our numerous, active, and enterprising business men. Their advertisements, it is believed, may with all confidence be left to speak for themselves; and are commended to the perusal of the public, at home and abroad.

Those who feel desirous of tracing the rapid progress of the city to its present enviable position in respect to trade and general prosperity, will find in the historical sketch prefixed to the Directory, some interesting details.

In the belief that many will be induced by this publication to visit our city, and examine into its abundant and increasing resources of trade, the publisher will only add that, if ease of access, convenience of location, abundance and variety of supplies, lowness of prices, fairness of transactions, promptness, and facility and cheapness of transportation, are to be regarded as important elements in estimating the advantages and attractions of a commercial emporium, none will be more likely to gain the palm of superiority, in these respects, than the City of Baltimore.

THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF NEW YORK,

No. 44 WALL STREET, N. Y.

This Company, since its organization on the first day of February, 1843 (two years), has issued one thousand and eight-six policies. The total amount received for premium and interest on investments, $124,687; yielding a net capital of $97,273, after paying all its losses and expenses. This accumulated capital is rapidly increasing by the 2d and 3d years' premiums now becoming due, and by a vastly extended and growing business. The eminent success and prosperity of the institution have placed it in a strong position. Its capital and resources are now so ample as to inspire confidence in its stability, and insure safety to its members.

This Company is organized upon the most approved principles of Mutual Life Insurance, and offers very great advantages to whole Life Policies, or insurances for short periods, if continued till death, without incurring any personal responsibilities. At the expiration of every five years from the date of the first policy, (which will make the first division of profits be on the first of February, 1848,) the WHOLE of the profits will be divided among the insured in proportion to the amount of premiums paid by them, and will remain at their credit as an accumulating fund, payable at the decease of the life insured.

The progress of this institution thus far gives strong grounds for anticipating large dividends to its members at the stated periodical settlement, and fully equal to those of the most distinguished and successful Mutual Companies in Great Britian, where it is well known immense profits have been made.

The importance and utility of Life Insurance are becoming matter of deep interest with all classes of the community, and it is now occupying much of public attention, and beginning to make fovorable impressions as to the great benefits to be derived from it, as the published monthly statement of lives insured by the Company conclusively shows.

Merchants and Traders; Officers, Civil, Military and Naval; Clergymen, and professional men generally; Clerks and persons in every station in society, may secure to their families, in the event of death, a comfortable support and independence, by making, with this institution, a small annual investment for an insurance on their lives.

This Company will grant insurance on lives upon the most favorable terms. Persons may effect insurance on their own lives or the lives of others.

Pamphlets explaining the principles and showing the advantages of Life Insurance, with the rates of premiums and forms of application, may be obtained at the office of this Company, No. 44 Wall street, or of any of its Agents.

THREE CHEERS FOR FRIEND KEEVIL,
THE HATTER!

A NEW SONG.

BY THE MILFORD BARD.

TUNE.—"Vive la Companie."

The Song on the following pages is from the pen of that excellent writer the "MILFORD BARD;" considering it worthy, it is cheerfully given a place in this "DIRECTORY." Mr. Keevil's HATS, the poet's theme, are, we believe, worn to an almost unprecedented extent in this city and the surrounding country, not only from ECONOMY, but admired for the uniqueness of style, taste of finish, and durability of texture and workmanship, which characterize the article produced at this establishment. One excellent plan adopted by Mr. Keevil, and worthy of attention, is his

"BILL OF PRICES,"

AS IT IS OF ADVANTAGE

PARTICULARLY TO THE STRANGER!

Who by it is enabled to learn the price of any Hat he wishes to purchase, either

SILK, RUSSIA, CASSIMERE OR BEAVER,

But for information in that respect we refer the reader to the Advertisement on the preceding page, as it enables him to see what is fairly demanded of ALL, the CITY PURCHASER as well as the STRANGER; in fact, ALL share alike at this store, where there are

"NO TWO PRICES!"

Come, list to the lay of the wonderful Hat,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
It wore seven years, and was then good at that;
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
He works for two-thirds of the price that is paid
For the very same hats by the rest of the trade;
Of the very best stuff they are tastily made;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

That wonderful Hat he a candidate sold,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
Was the cause of his being elected, I'm told;
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
Its beauty won for him a wife, it is said,
Who declared to her husband, soon after she wed,
She was far more in love with the Hat than the head;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

That man, when he went into Congress, I'm told,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
Was the wonder of all who the Hat did behold;
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
And he made a great speech upon this and on that,
And his fame was the theme of the wise and the flat,
But 'twas all brought about by the wonderful Hat;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

That Hat was the cause that the Tariff was pass'd,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
'Twas in Mr. Clay's eye when he spoke on it last,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
The members all swore, if such hats were made
By a Baltimore workman, that surely the trade
Protected should be—and the Tariff was laid;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

This congressman soon celebrated his name,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
And the Hat was the cause of his wonderful fame,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
In his Hat, not his head, were his talents combin'd,
For his speeches he there any moment could find;
'Twas a cabinet made for his wonderful mind;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

That Hat was more useful to him than his head,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
For he stow'd away in it far more, it is said,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
'Twas a library, where he his speeches display'd;
'Twas a post office, where all his letters were laid;
'Twas a box for segars, and a great deal of trade;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

That Hat was a shield, and an umbrella too,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
No cut from a club, and no rain could drive through,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
When the rowdies in Congress made claret to flow,
As the best of men will for amusement, you know,
That Hat saved his head from a terrible blow;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

'Twas thus, you all see, that Protection began,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
The Hat first protected the head of the man,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
But the Hatters all persecute Keevil, you know;
'Tis because they can never sell hats so low,
And in doing of business he's now "all the go;"
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

The jealous may joke, and may rail at his name,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
But the faster he'll rise on the record of fame,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
For the people are not to their interest blind,
They will buy where the cheapest and best they can find,
And these qualities both in his hats are combin'd;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter?

Do you know why he's able to undersell all?
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
He makes them himself, and his profits are small,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
No two or three profits his Hats ever bear;
A Hat that is sold at four dollars elsewhere,
He will sell for two fifty, and that's very fair;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

Then come, one and all, who would find a cheap store,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
'Tis in BALTIMORE STREET, number SEVENTY-FOUR,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
Come buy a cheap Hat as was ever yet made,
Far cheaper than now can be sold by the trade,
For they "can't come" the duty that Keevil has laid;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

They may rail at his prices, and ridicule more,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
But they'll find that the people will flock to his store,
Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter?
His fame is fast spreading the country around,
And his profits, though small, are becoming profound,
And his Hats are in currency solid and sound;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

This Institution, founded on the Mutual and Joint Stock principle, embraces all the recent improvements in the science of Life Insurance. Proposals from persons residing in this City and State and in the District of Columbia, whether for whole term of life (with or without profits) or for a limited period, will be received by the subscriber and forwarded immediately to the General Agent in the city of New York, who will without delay act on the proposed risk.

The rates of this Society are as low as those of the American Companies, and lower than the scale adopted by many London Offices. Loans granted to the extent of two-thirds the amount of premium paid, after the lapse of a year.

Persons insured in the United States on the scale of "participation" enjoy the important advantage of sharing in the whole business of the Society, which in Great Britain is very extensive.

The public are respectfully requested to examine the distinguishing principles of this Institution—their tables of rates—their distribution of profits—and the facilities afforded by their Loan department—before deciding to insure elsewhere.

Pamphlet containing the last Annual Report, the Society's rates, &c., together with Blank forms, and the fullest information may be obtained upon application.

Blank forms of all kinds furnished free of charge.

OUT CLEAN!

ALL COME

YES! We place a dozen dirty Shirts, with a little soap, and a bucket full of hot water, in

E. LUKENS' PATENT FAMILY

WASHING MACHINE,

And after washing from 10 to 20 minutes, they all come out PERFECTLY CLEAN!

Again, we put in from 6 to 10 Sheets or Table Cloths, with soap and water as before, and in 12 or 15 minutes THEY all come out CLEAN! Lastly, we lay from 25 to 50 small pieces, (such as can be placed together,) with soap and water, as above, and in from 15 to 20 minutes they also come out CLEAN! Wonderful as this may seem, it is done by the action and reaction of the water (by means of pressure) in connection with the soap, without any rubbing surface or friction whatever; consequently the clothes are not only uninjured by the operation, but are actually made to last TWICE AS LONG as when washed by hands.

EXHIBITIONS OF WASHING EVERY MONDAY MORNING AND FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

Come then and see the machine in operation, as it never fails to convince those who do. Enterprising men should make themselves acquainted with this most useful invention, deserving as it does a place in the kitchen of EVERY family.

Prices are $15, $20 and $25, according to size.

R. DELANEY'S

CELEBRATED

INDIAN VEGETABLE BITTERS AND PANACEA,

GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER,

ALSO HIS

Chronic Rheumatic External Solution,

WITH HIS

TETTER DESTROYER,

From 50 cents to 1 dollar per Bottle.

These bitters have proved the only true remedy (ever known of) for AGUES, BILIOUS CHOLICS, first stage of CONSUMPTION, DYSPEPSIA; a complete destroyer of WORMS, in young or old; WATER-BRASH, SCURVY, &c. One wine glass of No. 1, morning, noon and night will at all times relieve COSTIVENESS, HEAD-ACHE, &c. The same with one bottle of Panacea cures the severest COLD. Also, one pint bottle of these Bitters will eradicate the system of Mercury. For CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, two bottles of each has effected a cure of every case that came under my notice of years' standing.

These Bitters can be used at all times and seasons, without respect to diet.

OF THE

BRITISH COLLEGE OF HEALTH,

No. 31 South street,

Formerly No. 33,

THE HYGEIAN

OR

MORISONIAN SYSTEM,

As established by

JAMES MORISON,

THE HYGEIST,

Is contained in the following propositions, viz:

I. The vital principle is contained in the blood.

II. Blood makes blood.

III. Every thing in the body is derived from the blood.

IV. All constitutions are radically the same.

V. All diseases arise from the impurity of the blood, or in other words, from the acrimonious humors lodged in the body.

VI. This humor which degenerates the blood has three sources —the maturnine, the contagious, and the personal.

VII. Pain and disease have the same origin: and may therefore be considered synonymous terms.

VIII. PURGATION by the VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL MEDICINES, or other similar purgatives, is the only effectual mode of eradicating disease.

IX. From the intimate connection subsisting between the mind and the body, the health of one must conduce to the serenity of the other. The above medicines may always be obtained at the GENERAL AGENCY, No. 31 South street.

N. B. MORISON'S PILLS of the BRITISH COLLEGE OF HEALTH, London, are not sold by Chemists and Druggists.

☞AGENTS are wanted in all the towns, villages and country stores, to whom one-fourth commission will be allowed.

JOHN M. LAROQUE,

AT HIS

CHEMICAL PHARMACY,

Corner of Harrison & Market streets,

BALTIMORE,

Respectfully informs the public that he keeps constantly on hand a select assortment of FRESH

DRUGS, CHEMICALS,

AND A SUPERIOR VARIETY OF

PERFUMERY,

Chiefly prepared by himself, which he offers at Wholesale and Retail. He has also the following preparations, which have been universally approved by all who have used them, viz:

LAROQUE'S SARSAPARILLA.

The great success of this remedy during the many years that the subscriber has prepared it, induces him to offer it to the public generally as an efficacious remedy in all cases of Scrofula, Pimples, Eruption of the Skin, Scald Head, Tetter and Ring Worms, Scurvy, and Sores of every description, whether mercurial or scrofulous. In Liver complaint, when the complexion is sallow, and there is a deficient secretion of bile, this remedy will restore a healthy action to this organ, and the blood, when impure, will be caused to throw off the obnoxious matter, without endangering any vital part of the internal system. Females who will use this remedy conjointly with the celebrated

ASPASIA LOTION,

Will retain their freshness and beauty to an advanced age, as did the renowned Ninon de Zenclos, who at the age of eighty, was remarkable for her freshness and beauty.

LAROQUE'S ROSE DENTRIFICE,

For cleaning, preserving, and beautifying the Teeth, Gums, &c., and producing a pleasant breath.

COUGH SYRUP,

Which will ease Consumptive patients, and cure in the incipient stage. His

ELIXIR OF BARK

Is recommended in case of debility, and to those exposed to damp weather, to prevent Chills and Fever.

FLORIDA WATER,

Of which he is the Inventor; the celebrity of this perfume has induced many to manufacture a spurious article under the same name.

BERMUDA ARROW ROOT & TOUS LES MOIS.

I have made arrangements which will enable me always to supply the above articles fresh and from the manufactory of one person.

This Arrow Root is well known to the customers of D. & J. VD. Stewart, having been imported by them (generally twice a year) for more than five years.—The crop of the manufacturer was previously monopolized for the London market, and is as far superior to the mixed lots constantly for sale in our market from various manufacturers in Bermuda, as Henry's Magnesia is to the ordinary calcined Magnesia.

I prefer to pay 20 per cent. more for this manufacture than I can get the Bermuda Arrow Root for here of the importers, and continue to retail it at the usual price in canisters, sealed.

INDEMNITY AGAINST LOSS OR DAMAGE BY FIRE.

CHARTER PERPETUAL.

THE SPRING GARDEN
MUTUAL INSURANCE CO.
OF PHILADELPHIA,

Having organized according to the provisions of its Charter, is now prepared to make Insurances against Loss by Fire, on the mutual principle, combined with the security of a joint stock capital. The advantage of this system is, that efficient security is afforded at the lowest rates that the business can be done for, as the whole profits (less an interest, not to exceed six per cent. per annum on the capital) will be returned to the members of the Institution, without their becoming responsible for any of the engagements or liabilities of the company, further than the premiums actually paid.

The great success which this system has met with wherever it has been introduced, induces the Directors to request the attention of the public to it, confident that it requires only to be understood to be appreciated.

The act of incorporation, and any explanations in regard to it, may be obtained by applying to

GEORGE C. MORTON, Agent,
No. 23 Exchange Buildings, Gay st.

Who is authorized to effect Insurances against Loss or Damage by Fire for said Company, on the principle stated in the above advertisement.

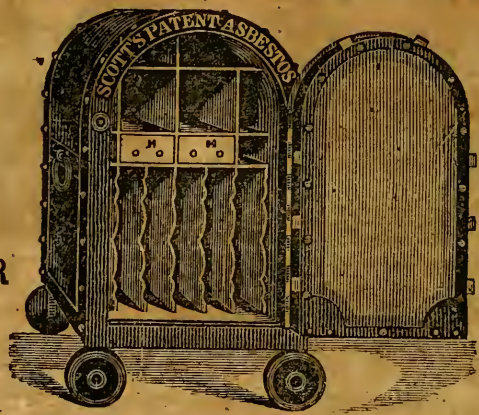
IMPROVED ASBESTOS

SALAMANDER SAFETY



FIRE-PROOF IRON CHESTS,

AND

MONEY BOXES.

J. SCOTT informs his numerous friends and customers, from the different parts of the continent, that he is prepared to furnish those who may want a perfect FIRE and ROBBER-PROOF IRON CHEST, warranted to stand four times as much fire as any other now made in this, or any other country. His stock consists of all sizes and qualities.

The Robber-Proof cannot be Picked or Opened, even by their own key, without instructions, and which will be guarantied in the sum of $500. Those who may want a safeguard against Fire and Robbers, cannot be better supplied in any other place; they have proved themselves to be what they are called, FIRE AND ROBBER-PROOFS.

They have been tested in the different large fires, where they have been subjected to the most intense heat. In the cities of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Richmond, Washington City, Charleston, Mobile, New Orleans, St. Louis, Cincinnati, and in a number of other towns in and out of the Union. The results are set forth in the most satisfactory manner.

A few of the most respectable References are here given:

In New York, Messrs. Hubbard & Cacey, and C. Hathaway, Esq.; Boston, Mr. James C. Odiorne and John Gelbraith, Esq.; Philadelphia, Hon. Joseph R. Ingersoll, Hon. Joel B. Sutherland, Hon. No. 10 ELLICOTT STREET,

BALTIMORE,

Has on hand a great variety of the above articles, which he will sell at the lowest prices, and warrant them equal to any in the city. He has lately Invented, and placed at the corner of Baltimore and Calvert streets, a

TWIN LIFTING AND FORCING PUMP,

Which he invites the public generally to examine. This Pump combines many advantages over the ordinary Pump: it is so constructed as to be used as a Fire Engine, or common yard pump; by repeated trials it has, with the working of two men, been made to throw a stream of water EIGHTY FEET, through two hundred feet of hose, the hose can be attached in two minutes. This will be found to be a most admirable article for Villages, Factories, Gardeners, and Farmers; it can not be put out of order half so easily as the common pump, and the cost is but little more.

☞All Orders in the above line thankfully received and promptly attended to.

BALTIMORE,

Have constantly for sale at Wholesale and Retail, a large assortment of SPECTACLES, mounted in Gold, Silver, Tortoise Shell, German Silver, Elastic Steel and Common Frames, fitted with Double Convex, Concave, Periscopic and Colored Glasses, of best quality.

Watches, Jewelry and Silver Ware.

Gold and Silver Levers of M. I. Tobias, Beesley, Robinson, and other approved makers. Gold and Silver Anchor Lever, Duplex, L'Espine, and Vertical Watches, from best makers. Mathematical Instruments, Thermometers, &c. Gold Guard and Fob Chains; Splendid Bracelets, Breastpins and Rings; Gold and Silver Pencil Cases and Thimbles; Silver Spoons, Forks, Cups and other manufactures of Silver.

Having arranged all their Goods in the Optical line on one side of their store, this branch of the business will occupy the undivided attention of one of the firm, (surviving partner of T. FENTON HAMILTON & CO.) who flatters himself, from his long experience in adapting glasses to the sight, to give satisfaction. None but glasses of the best quality, and correctly ground, will be applied, as great injury to the sight often results from the use of glasses of an inferior quality, or from an injudicious selection. Their Spectacle Frames and other Wares of Gold and Silver, are made by the best of workmen, in their own workshop, under the immediate superintendence of one of the firm, a practical mechanic; with these advantages, they are enabled to sell at such prices as cannot fail to please.

☞ Clocks and Watches of every description, carefully repaired and warranted. Spectacles and Thermometers repaired; new Glasses fitted to Spectacles.

CHOICE ORIGINAL ARTICLES & REVIEWS OF NEW BOOKS.

IT WILL ALSO CONTAIN

Selections from the best Catholic Reviews and other publications,

WITH A

SUMMARY OF FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

THE

U. S. CATHOLIC MAGAZINE

AND

MONTHLY REVIEW,

Edited by the Rev. C. I. WHITE, Baltimore, and Very Rev. M. J. SPALDING, D. D., Louisville, Ky.

The Official Organ of the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore, and the Right Rev. Bishop of Richmond, and published with the approbation of the Right Rev. Bishops of the United States.

The conductors of this periodical respectfully announce to the Catholic community, and to the public generally, that the work has now reached the FOURTH VOLUME, and will be continued with increased efforts, on their part, to render it worthy of universal patronage. The object of the Magazine is to defend and advance the cause of religion, by imparting all such information as may have even a remote bearing upon this vitally important subject; and, hence, a secondary aim of the publication is to aid in the diffusion of a sound literature, by the critical examination of the various works that are issued from the press. The character of these works, which come forth with such profusion at the present day, can be learned by the great proportion of the reading world only from the pages of a periodical review, which enables them, by its condensed exposition of the merit and demerit of authors, to keep pace with the progress of literature, and to appreciate most of the publications that have appeared. This extensive field of investigation also admits of a variety, which embraces every topic of an instructive or interesting nature. To dwell upon the advantages of such a periodical, in general, we deem unnecessary at this moment. The question that more prominently presents itself for consideration, is the fitness of our Magazine for the important ends which have been mentioned: and it is plain that for the decision of this point our testimony is inadmissible. But we are satisfied to rest our claims to public patronage on the attestation of others; on the opinion, not merely of the press throughout the country, but particularly of the Chief Pastors of the Church in the United States, who have honored our publication with the most flattering approbation. Among its contributors are gentlemen eminent for their talents and learning, and whose services are an earnest of the character which it will sustain. We may observe, in particular, that the Very Rev. Dr. SPALDING, whose extensive erudition and great ability as a writer are well known to the public, has consented to become an associate editor of the Magazine, and will be a regular contributor to its pages.

For the information of those who may not have had an opportunity of examining the periodical, we will mention that, independently of strictly doctrinal articles, it embodies many critical reviews of scientific, historical, and religious works that are issued from the English and American press, as well as other papers which are highly interesting to the general reader. In the pages of the third volume are found able critiques on Brande's Encyclopedia, Palmer's History of the Church, Dr. Durbin's Observations in Europe, Mayer's Mexico, Mr. Webster's Speech on the Girard Will Case, Prescott's Conquest of Mexico, together with other articles of equal interest and importance, such as The Influence of Catholicity on Civil Liberty, The Literary services of the Catholic Clergy, &c. &c. In addition to all this, it contains an agreeable miscellany of general literature, with a summary of ecclesiastical intelligence, which contributes to the variety of its articles, and at the same time is adapted to the taste of every reader.

The same attention will continue to be paid by the publisher to the elegance of the mechanical department. A series of FIRST CLASS ENGRAVINGS will be furnished in the course of the present year.

TERMS.

THE UNITED STATES CATHOLIC MAGAZINE will be published regularly on or before the first of every month. Each number will contain SIXTY-EIGHT PAGES Super Royal Octavo. It will be printed in the neatest manner, on fine paper of a beautiful texture, with NEW TYPE. The work will be delivered in the city, and mailed regularly to subscribers, about the first of every month. Twelve numbers make a volume, each volume will commence with the January number, at which time the year's subscription commences.

THE SUBSCRIPTION is THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR, payable invariably in advance, (except for city subscribers, who have the privilege of paying half-yearly in advance, when they prefer it.) No subscriptions will be received for less than twelve months, (commencing, in all cases, with the January number,) and in no instance will the work be sent to any one, unless the order is accompanied with the cash. The very low price at which the work is furnished renders the payment in advance indispensable.

GREAT INDUCEMENTS TO CLERGYMEN, POSTMASTERS, CLUBS, AGENTS, AND ALL PERSONS DESIROUS OF PROMOTING THE CIRCULATION OF CHEAP LITERATURE.

Two Copies of the work will be mailed regularly for one year, or one copy for two years, for - - -	$5	Current money, or its equivalent, paid in advance.
Four Copies for one year, for - - - - - -	10
Ten Copies for one year, for - - - - - -	20

These regulations are made in order to meet the wishes of reverend gentlemen and others desirous of patronizing the work, who reside at a distance, and find it difficult to transmit sums less than $5. It is hoped that, by this means, the appointment of agents will no longer be necessary; at least in small country places, as the reduction in price will be a sufficient per centage for postmasters and others who may interest themselves in procuring four or more subscribers.

The risk in the transmission of subscriptions by mail will be assumed by the publisher, provided the person transmitting sends the money regularly under the postmaster's frank.

N.B. Postmasters are authorized, and generally willing, to forward money for periodicals, free of expense, when the letters are signed by themselves. Persons wishing to make remittances will, therefore, when it can be done, write just what they want the postmaster to say for them, so that he will have no further trouble than to sign their communication.

All letters should be post paid and directed to JOHN MURPHY, PUBLISHER, 178 Market street, Baltimore.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

From the many commendatory notices that have been taken of our Magazine, we make the following extracts.

We earnestly recommend to the clergy and laity, the UNITED STATES CATHOLIC MAGAZINE, a Catholic periodical to be published monthly in Baltimore. It is calculated to promote the honor of our holy religion, and will, we trust, have a place in every Catholic library. † SAMUEL, Archbishop of Baltimore.

I hereby establish the U. S. Catholic Magazine my official organ of public communication with the clergy and laity of the archdiocess of Baltimore. Should it become necessary to address them on any subject before the regular period for the publication of the Magazine, an extra sheet will be issued, corresponding in dimensions and style with those of the periodical. † SAMUEL, Archbishop of Baltimore.

Having within my jurisdiction no press through which to publish the official documents of the diocess, I have selected for that purpose the United States Catholic Magazine, and as such recommend it earnestly to the reverend clergy and laity thereof. † RICHARD VINCENT, Bishop of Richmond.

The undersigned wish to express their approbation of the manner in which the United States Catholic Magazine has hitherto been conducted: and their confidence in the able and zealous directors who superintend its pages, authorizes them to recommend it to the patronage of the faithful of their respective diocesses.

† BENEDICT JOSEPH, Bishop of Boston.
† MICHAEL, Bishop of Mobile.
† JOHN BAPTIST, Bishop of Cincinnati.
† GUY IGNATIUS, Bishop of Botena, and Coadjutor of Louisville.
† ANTHONY, Bishop of New Orleans.
† MATHIAS, Bishop of Dubuque.
† JOHN, Bishop of New York.
† RICHARD PIUS, Bishop of Nashville.
† CŒLESTINE, Bishop of Vincennes.
† PETER PAUL, Bishop of Zeta and administrator of Detroit.
† JOHN JOSEPH, Bishop of Natchez.
† RICHARD VINCENT, Bishop of Richmond.
† JOHN M., Bishop of Claudiopolis and Vicar Apostolic of Texas.

"The work is conducted with great ability, and is considered a fair and able exponent of the doctrines of the church for which it speaks."—U. S. Gazette.

"The publisher appears determined to spare neither labor nor expense to make his publication worthy of patronage, and for neatness and beauty of typography, the number before us will advantageously compare with any periodical in the country."—Pittsburg Star.

"This periodical is a diamond of the first water. Every single line of its contents is valuable, and proves both the anxiety and ability of the Rev. gentlemen who conduct it to please, and their power to do so. Nothing is admitted into the columns of this Magazine, whether selected or original, that is not unexceptionable, and therefore worthy of the profound and cultivated minds before which it is to pass in review."—N. E. Reporter.
